

Established since 1971, the Economics Department has produced about two thousand graduates. Serving in different capacities in various professional, service, and business sectors, they have been making their contributions to the society as good and responsible citizens. They are very concern about the welfare and development of the Economics Department and the University, and are proud of being the alumni of the University. In order to build a good networking among economics alumni and to involve actively in the activities and development of the Economics Department and the University, the HKBU Economics Alumni Association was established on 11 June 2004. Prof. C.F. Ng, President/VC, Prof. S.H. Tang, Head of Economics Department, Dr. Eddie K.W. Ho, Director of Student Affairs and Ms. Ivory C.K. Chu, Administrative Officer of Alumni Relations Office attended and addressed the Inauguration Ceremony. Membership of the First Executive Committee of the Association was elected as follows:
