

*Korea Institute for Industrial Economics & Trade
Research Center for International Economics and the Asia-Pacific Economic Association* are jointly organizing the 3rd Back-to-Back International Conferences

*“China and the World Economy”
“The Global Economy”*

2014

Seoul, Korea, September 18-19, 2014

Executive Committee: Kar-yiu Wong, University of Washington (co-chair)
Dohoon Kim, Korea Institute for Industrial Economics & Trade (co-chair)
Joshua Aizenman, University of Southern California
Shin-ichi Fukuda, University of Tokyo
Chung Mo Koo, Kangwon National University

Organizing Units: Asia-Pacific Economic Association
Korea Institute for Industrial Economics & Trade
University of Washington Research Center for International Economics

Local Organizing Unit: Department of Economics, Kangwon National University

Supporting Journals: China Economic Policy Review and Global Journal of Economics

Program Committee: Shin-ichi Fukuda, University of Tokyo (co-chair)
Jinkeun Yu, Korea Institute for Industrial Economics & Trade (co-chair)
Hyun-Hoon Lee, Kangwon National University
Tom Willet, Claremont Graduate University

Local Organizing Committee: Chung Mo Koo, Kangwon National University (co-chair)
Dongsoo Kim, Korea Institute for Industrial Economics & Trade (co-chair)
Hyeon-seung Huh, Yonsei University
Hyung-Gun Kim, Kangwon National University
Won Joong Kim, Konkuk University

Economists are invited to submit papers for presentation consideration in the above two conferences, which are sequels to previous conferences on the same themes held in Seattle on March 16-18, 2012 and in Tokyo on March 15-16, 2013. Papers presented will be revised after the conferences and considered for publication in two journals: China Economic Policy Review and Global Journal of Economics.

1. China and the World Economy

Date: Thursday, September 4, 2014

Some possible topics (not limited to, yet policy papers are encouraged):

- labor market and issues in China
- monetary and fiscal policies
- financial markets and fiscal issues in China
- foreign trade and issues
- foreign direct investment, inward and outward
- economic growth and development
- environment and economics
- industrial structure and development
- international issues and issues of other economies related to China
- technology and economics
- comparative economic systems and socialism

2. Global Economy

Date: Friday, September 5, 2014

Some possible topics (not limited to, both policy and theoretical papers encouraged):

- international economics: theory and empirical studies
- trade policies; monetary and fiscal policies
- global financial and fiscal issues
- cross-country comparison and studies
- international economic organizations
- international environment and economics
- foreign direct investment (inward or outward)
- international labor migration
- international technology transfer and intellectual property rights
- global economic issues
- cross-country externality
- international economic disputes and settlement

Papers presented in the conferences will be considered for publication in one of the two new journals, China Economic Policy Review and Global Journal of Economics.

For submission, please send an extended abstract or a draft of the paper for presentation consideration to Chung Mo Koo at <cmkoo@kangwon.ac.kr> by July 15, 2014. Please indicate which conference the submitted paper is for and please include information (e-mail addresses and names of affiliation) of all co-authors.

For more information about this and previous conferences, please visit <http://www.apeaweb.org/>.